Art Unit: 3641

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Fessenmaier on 2/10/05 and 2/22/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Rewrite claim 10 as follows:

10. A blowgun having a barrel and a mouthpiece movably coupled to the barrel, wherein a projectile is manually loaded into the barrel through the mouthpiece when the barrel is in a first position relative to the mouthpiece, and wherein the projectile is propelled from the barrel by a blast from a user's mouth through the mouthpiece when the barrel is in a second position relative to the mouthpiece and wherein each of the mouthpiece and the barrel have an opening, and wherein the openings form a continuous channel when the barrel is in a first position relative to the mouthpiece, and wherein the openings do not form a continuous channel when the barrel is in the second position relative to the mouthpiece.

Cancel claim 2.

Rewrite claim 13 as follows:

Art Unit: 3641

13. The blowgun of claim 11 wherein the projectile comprises a soft material that retains a fluid on an outer surface of the material.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose a blowgun having a mouthpiece and a barrel, each including an opening and is moveable with respect to a barrel from a first position to a second position as claimed. The examiners amendment was made to define over a typical "spitball" shooter comprising a bendable straw or possibly two straws connected together.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to Troy Chambers at 703 308-5870 or his supervisory Michael Carone at telephone number 703 306-4198.
